Does your city provide interpreters when requested for Council meetings?

Do you have a policy related to interpreters?

Please share any input you have.

Thanks!

Hi!

We do not have interpreters. We have listening devices available through the Clerk's Office. The Court and the Police I believe have a list of interpreters that can be utilized, however I don't believe the city pays for that.

Hope that helps!

We don't have a policy. Only used an ASL interpreter at one Council mtg in May 2015.

Our agenda states:

City Council meetings are accessible to people with disabilities. Please phone (206) 248-5517 at least 48 hours prior to the meeting to request assistance. American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation and assisted listening devices are available upon request.

Good luck!

Happy Holidays to you and yours,

Hi Kristina,

We do not have interpreters on hand at Council meetings. We do provide an interpreter for the court and/or hearing examiner if requested ahead of time. We do not have an official policy.
